1 GROUP OF COMPANIES

- 1.1 Humble Software (Proprietary) Limited, registration number 2017/510509/07 ("Company") is a private body as defined in the Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 ("Act").
- 1.2 This manual is compiled in relation to the Company and its subsidiaries, being –

2 ACCESS TO INFORMATION

- 2.1 The motivation for the Act is found in the Constitution of South Africa which provides that everyone has a right of access to information held –
  - 2.1.1 by the state, where no reason for access to the information needs to be established (section 32(1)(a)); or
  - 2.1.2 by a private body, if the requestor requires a record for the exercise or protection of any right (section 32(1)(b)).
- 2.2 The Constitution further requires that legislation be enacted to give effect to the provision of section 32 of the Constitution. The Act has been enacted to meet this requirement.
- 2.3 In terms of the Act any person has a right of access to a record held by or under the control of a private body if (a) the record is required for the exercise or protection of any right, (b) the requestor has complied with all the procedural requirements of the Act, and (c) no grounds for refusal can be established by the private body allowing them to refuse access to the record requested.
- 2.4 The grounds for refusal established in the Act are –
  - 2.4.1 mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person (human being);
  - 2.4.2 mandatory protection of commercial information of a third party;
  - 2.4.3 mandatory protection of certain confidential information of a third party;
  - 2.4.4 mandatory protection of the safety of individuals, and the protection of property;
  - 2.4.5 mandatory protection of records privileged from production in legal proceedings;
  - 2.4.6 commercial information of a private body;
  - 2.4.7 mandatory protection of research information of a third party and of a private body.
- 2.5 The first step in assessing a request is to determine if the request is procedurally correct. This is facilitated by the requester ("Requestor") properly and fully completing the information required in the request. If assistance is required, the information officer ("IO") will render reasonable assistance to a Requester to comply with the procedures set out in the Act. The IO will also require that the Requester is properly identified and that the applicable fee and, if applicable a deposit, has been paid. Once these requirements have all been fully satisfied a 30 day period begins to run and the IO is obliged to give the Requester notice of the IO's decision during that 30 day period.
- 2.6 The second step in assessing a request is to determine if the Requester has evidenced, in the request, that the Requestor requires the record to exercise or protect a right. If the IO is satisfied that the information provided by the Requester supports this requirement, the third step will be conducted.
- 2.7 The third step in assessing a request is to determine if the IO must or may refuse the request on the basis of a ground for refusal. In some cases this decision is mandatory, and in others it is discretionary.
- 2.8 Once the IO has made a decision the IO must inform the Requester of the decision and, if the request is refused, provide reasons for the refusal.
- 2.9 If the Requester is aggrieved by either the fees charged for access to a record, the form in which access is provided to a record, or by a refusal to grant access to a record, the Requester is entitled to apply to court for appropriate relief, within 30 days of receiving notice of the decision.
- 2.10 The Company endorses the object of the Act, which is to give effect to the constitutional right of access to information, subject to justifiable limitations. The manual is intended to assist a Requester in exercising this right.

10 POPI

- 10.1 In this section 10, the following terms (and similar expressions) have the corresponding meanings –
  - 10.1.1 "Process" means any operation or activity or any set of operations, whether or not by automatic means, concerning Personal information, including: (a) collection, receipt, recording, organisation, collation, storage, updating or modification, retrieval, alteration, consultation or use; (b) dissemination by means of transmission, distribution or making available in any other form; or (c) merging, linking, as well as restriction, degradation, erasure or destruction of information.
  - 10.1.2 "Personal Information" means information relating to an identifiable, living, natural person, and where it is applicable, an identifiable, existing juristic person, comprising –
    - 10.1.2.1 personal information including (a) information relating to the race, gender, sex, pregnancy, marital status, national, ethnic or social origin, colour, sexual orientation, age, physical or mental health, well-being, disability, religion, conscience, belief, culture, language and birth of the person; (b) information relating to the education or the medical, financial, criminal or employment history of the person; (c) any identifying number, symbol, email address, physical address, telephone number, location information, online identifier or other particular assignment to the person; (d) the biometric information of the person; (e) the personal opinions, views or preferences of the person; (f) correspondence sent by the person that is implicitly or explicitly of a private or confidential nature or further correspondence that would reveal the contents of the original correspondence; (g) the views or opinions of another individual about the person; and (h) the name of the person if it appears with other personal information relating to the person or if the disclosure of the name itself would reveal information about the person; and
    - 10.1.2.2 special personal information including (a) religious or philosophical beliefs, race or ethnic origin, trade union membership, political persuasion, health or sex life or biometric information (personal identification based on physical, physiological or behavioural characterisation including blood typing, fingerprinting, DNA analysis, retinal scanning and voice recognition) of a data subject, or (b) criminal behaviour of a data subject to the extent that it relates to (i) the alleged commission by a data subject of any offence, or (ii) any proceedings in respect of any offence allegedly committed by a data subject or the disposal of such proceedings.
- 10.2 Processing of Personal Information by members of the Group, is governed by POPI. Members of the Group are obliged to meet the Processing conditions stipulated by POPI when Processing Personal Information. As a general guide (but note that this information may be incomplete) these Processing conditions comprise the following principles –
  - 10.2.1 Accountability: the responsible party must ensure that these conditions and the measures that give effect to them are complied with at the time of the determination of the purpose and means of the Processing and during the Processing itself.

- 10.2.2 Processing Limitation: Personal Information may be processed (a) lawfully and in a reasonable manner that does not infringe the data subject's privacy, (b) if, given its purpose for being Processed, it is adequate, relevant and not excessive, (c) with consent, or if it is necessary to perform a contract relating to the data subject, or if required by law, or if it protects or if it is necessary for pursuing a legitimate interest of the data subject, (d) until consent is withdrawn or processing is objected to by the data subject. Personal Information must be collected from the data subject unless it is available in public records, or has been made public by the data subject, or the data subject has consented to it being collected from another source, or it not reasonably practicable to collect it from the data subject in a specific case. A data subject may object to the Processing of Personal Information by completing and submitting APPENDIX 2.
- 10.2.3 Purpose Specification: Personal Information must be collected for a specific, explicitly defined and lawful purpose related to a function or activity of the responsible party and must not be retained any longer than necessary to achieve the purpose for which it was collected or subsequently Processed unless required by law or contract or if it is reasonably required for lawful purposes or consent has been given. Once it may no longer be retained, Personal Information must be destroyed or de-identified. Processing of Personal Information must be restricted if the data subject contests its accuracy.
- 10.2.4 Further Processing Limitation: Further Processing must be compatible with the purpose for which it was originally collected.
- 10.2.5 Information Quality: the responsible party must take reasonably practicable steps to ensure that Personal Information is complete, accurate, not misleading and is updated where necessary.
- 10.2.6 Openness: if Personal Information is collected, the responsible party must take reasonably practical steps to ensure the data subject is aware of (a) the information being collected, (b) the source of the information, (c) name and address of the responsible party, (d) the purpose for which the information is being collected, (e) if the supply of information is voluntary or mandatory, (f) the consequences of failing to provide the information, (g) any law authoring the collection, (h) whether the responsible party intends transferring the information to another country and the level of protection to be afforded to it. This is not necessary if consent has been given for non-compliance or if compliance is not reasonably practicable in the particular circumstances.
- 10.2.7 Security Safeguards: A responsible party must secure the integrity and confidentiality of Personal Information in its possession or under its control by taking appropriate and reasonable technical and organisational measures to prevent loss of, damage to or unauthorised destruction of Personal Information and unlawful access to or processing of Personal Information. The responsible party must have due regard to generally accepted information security practices and procedures which may apply to it generally or be required in terms of specific industry or professional rules and regulations. Where there are reasonable grounds to believe that Personal Information of a data subject was accessed/acquired by an unauthorised person, the responsible party must notify the Regulator and the data subject.
- 10.2.8 Data Subject Participation: As regards its Personal Information, a data subject may, request a responsible party by completing and submitting APPENDIX 3 to (a) correct or delete inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out-dated, incomplete, misleading or unlawfully obtained information in its possession/under its control, and (b) destroy or delete a record of information that the responsible party is no longer authorised in law to retain.
- 10.3 In the course of their respective business and operations the members of the Group (as responsible parties in terms of POPI) Process Personal Information of and relating to the Group's (a) clients and their customers, (b) suppliers, (c) service providers and their customers, (d) professional advisers, (e) personnel (including employees, contractors and officers) and their family members and relatives, (f) non-executive officers and their family members and relatives, and (g) shareholders and their ultimate beneficial owners.
- 10.4 The exact nature of a data subject's Personal Information which is Processed by members of the Group will depend on the relationship (which may be direct or indirect) between the member of the Group and the data subject and the rights and obligations of the member of the Group in relation to or associated with the data subject. For a general overview of the Personal Information Processed by members of the Group in respect of various data subjects, see APPENDIX 4.

11 PRESCRIBED FEES IN TERMS OF SECTION 54(1)

- 11.1 In terms of section 54(1) of the Act the head of a private body (or by implication the IO) is not obliged to process a request until the prescribed request fee (currently R50.00) has been paid. Unless and until the fee or any deposit that the Requester is required to pay in terms of the Act, and all other procedural requirements have been complied with the 30 day period allowed for the IO to consider, the request shall not commence.
- 11.2 A schedule of the prescribed fees can be obtained by viewing regulation R187 on the Human Rights Commission's website at www.sahrc.org.za. As at the date of publication of this manual, the fees are as set out in APPENDIX 5.
